

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP IN PERCUSSION

Available Fall 2014

Responsibilities:

Primary:

- Teach the Panimation Steel Drum Band OR assist with the Drumline
- Teach undergraduate music major and non-major applied lessons
- Supervision of the major concert ensembles percussion sections
- Teach and assist with Percussion Ensemble II

Additional, depending on experience:

- Teach or assist with the Brazilian Ensemble
- Teach or assist with the Percussion Methods course

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in music education, performance, or equivalent, with an emphasis in percussion
- Applicants with teaching and/or performance experience in steel band or marching bands/drumline are preferred
- On campus auditions are preferred, but taped auditions will be accepted
- Acceptance into the Texas A&M University-Commerce Graduate School: www.tamuc.edu/Academics/GraduateSchool/

Benefits:

- A two-year commitment includes a stipend of $8,000 per year
- Possible tuition remission up to 6 hours per semester
- Out-of-State tuition waiver
- Health Insurance

Degrees Offered:

Master of Music in Performance and Music Education

For application materials or additional information, contact:

Dr. David Scott
Music Department Head
Texas A&M University-Commerce
Department of Music
Commerce, TX 75429
(903) 886-5304
David.Scott@tamuc.edu

Dr. Brian Zator
Director of Percussion
Texas A&M University-Commerce
Department of Music
Commerce, TX 75429
(903) 886-5299
Brian.Zator@tamuc.edu

Visit the Music Department website at:
www.tamuc.edu/music

Music Department Mission Statement:

With a passion for performance, the Department of Music provides a rigorous academic experience and fosters intellectual curiosity, creativity and aesthetic awareness while refining and expanding skill development through performing, teaching, conducting and composing music.

The University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer